

Kay Zee Sitshebo - Assistant Squash Coach

- 14 years of squash experience
- Born in Zimbabwe and raised in South Africa
- The first graduate of the Egoli Youth Empowerment Program, South Africa, 2013. The program helps underprivileged kids get off the streets, offers good education and empowerment through sports
- Egoli Squash Team Captain
- Providence Academy High School Squash Coach
- Represented Gauteng province in the U19 provincial championship in 2013
- Moved to Indianapolis, 2014
- Hahn Cup winning team member, 2015
- Purdue University graduate, 2022
- Purdue Squash Club President
- 5+ years coaching adult and junior squash
- Highest US squash rating of 5.03
- Honeywick Fall Classic Squash Champion, 2015
- Team Great Lakes player versus Navy Academy, 2016, 2017 and 2018

Coach Kay Zee strives to grow awareness of squash and encourage people to play and learn the game. Reflecting on his experience and background, he aims to empower youth through a sporting community that admires change and believes in the advantages of sporting activities.

